JEWEL CITY FOUR WILL SING WAY CROSS COUNTRY

Local Vocalists Go On Theatre
Circuit: Fame of Glendale
Will Be Presented

More than seven years ago Leo Goode, Bob Ritchey, Jack Wagon and Don Goode formed a quartet called the "Jewel City Four." They made their debut in the good old days at the then Glendale Theatre, corner of Isabel and Broadway.

As in the moving picture plots, a long time elapses. Don went overseas and returned, Jack joined the fire department, Leo became a prosperous cement contractor and so on and so forth.

Most people forgot the harmony these youngsters used to purvey, for two of them got married—and that's another story.

Dress Suits 'n' Everything
One week ago last Sunday night the Jewel City Four, all dolled up in dress suits, made another debut at the beautiful new Glendale Theatre. They were under the direction of Harry Farnsworth McPherson with Herbert Henning at the piano.

This time they stopped the show. The four Glendale singers, who had amused the folks and other local lodges with their ditties, achieved success.

Friday and Saturday nights of this week they open at San Bernardino on the Best Levy coast-to-coast vaudeville circuit. Messrs. McPherson and Henning will bid them farewell in a few days as they start their three-day journey across the country.

Valentine Party Given In Honor of Alice Hill

One of the prettiest of valentine parties was enjoyed by a group of high school freshmen Saturday night when Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hill, 333 Riverdale drive, entertained for their daughter, Alice Hill. The rooms were decorated with hearts and cupid in red and gold, used in profusion.

A number of interesting games were arranged for the evening enjoyment. For the "Picture Gallery" guessing game, the prize was awarded to Carolyn Ayers, and her partner, Miss Sharpe. Dallas Kalbaugh carried off the prize in another guessing game. Commendable and "walking the tape" added much to the merriment. In the game of spelling the most words from the letters in "Valentine," Arthur Barton carried off the honors with fifty-seven words. Frederica Browne was awarded the girl's prize, with forty-seven. Carolyn Ayers was presented with the "hooby." Valentine hearts were matched to select partners for supper. This was served at a table, especially pretty with valentine decorations. Favors were paper caps, decorated with gold hearts and darts, and old fashioned candy hearts with printed mottoes.

Those invited were Lucile Beach, Marjorie Hart, Vivian Nay, Alexandra Bagley, Leah Allender, Beryl Goodale, Frederica Browne, Carolyn Ayers, Alice Hill, Miss Gladys Sharpe, Arthur Barton, Clifford Walcott, Robert Hatch, Dallas Kalbaugh, Donald McMillan, David Roberts, Robert Hill, Alex McDougall, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Beach.

H. J. Seeley's Ears Recall Frost Bite and Tingle Again

"Frost-bitten ears," says H. J. Seeley of 1500 Ogechee Way, Verdugo Woodlands, Glendale.

"How come?" ask his friends at the oil station on the southwest corner of Broadway and Central avenue.

"Morning down to work the other morning the wind whistled around my receiving apparatus and reminded the ears of the time they were frozen stiff in Washington state about twelve years ago."

"That aroused the sympathetic nerves and they suffer from frost bite the same way that people have stage fright."

Baroness de Ropp Will Talk at Tuesday Club

At the regular meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club, which will be held tomorrow afternoon at Masonic temple, the program will be given by Baroness Ottilie de Ropp, who will lecture on "Rasputin the Hypnotic, the Power Behind the Throne."

Baroness de Ropp was booked to appear before the members of the Tuesday Afternoon club in November, but generously postponed her engagement in order to allow the members to hear Olga Steeb and the Knabe Amphio, that date being the only date on which Miss Steeb could appear and who was secured through the courtesy of the Loomis-Shuck Music company. At tomorrow afternoon's program tea will be served from a Russian samovar, by women in costume.

The municipal orchestra, which was organized last Tuesday under the direction of John Marquardt, will hold rehearsals regularly at 7:30 o'clock every Tuesday night in Room 124 at Glendale Union High school. ## CONTEST IN MUSIC TESTS NOW UNDER WAY IN CITY

Much Enthusiasm Being Shown in Event; List of Prizes to Be Awarded

The music memory contest, which is being sponsored by the Glendale Music Club, and which is under the general direction of Mrs. Dora Gibson, was begun today with great enthusiasm. This is the first contest of its kind ever presented to the public of Glendale. Similar contests have been successfully given in the east and in San Diego.

Naturally, the prizes offered in connection with the contest are a very important feature. Many prizes have already been donated for this contest including two scholarships at the California Academy of Music, worth $250 each, cash prize of $10 from The Glendale Evening News, cash prize of $10 from Glendale Music Club and donation of $10 from that organization for records to be used in contest, and other cash prizes.

Forty Records Chosen

A list of forty records has been chosen, which appeared in a recent issue of this newspaper and ten different records of this set will be played each week. At the end of the fourth week the try-outs will be held and prizes awarded, being based on the musical memory of associating the names and composers of the various selections with the music. The first ten records of the set of forty will be played every afternoon this week, beginning promptly at 3:30 o'clock, at the Loomis-Shuck Music company, Kenny's Music Shop and the Glendale Music Store.

This will give the public an opportunity to become thoroughly familiarized with all compositions. At the close of the contest a public assembly will be held and prizes awarded. The records which have been donated will then be used as a circulating library to further music in the rural schools of the state.

Donations Received

In order to facilitate matters in regard to the contest, Kenny's Music Shop has loaned one complete set of records. Mr. Salmacia of the Glendale Music Company has donated twelve records and other donations have been received from Mrs. Matison B. Jones, Miss Breneman, Mrs. Spencer Robinson, Mrs. Frank Ayars, Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. Frank Arnold and Mrs. Freeman Kelly.

Donations of records or prizes may be made through Mrs. Spencer Robinson, Mrs. Frank Arnold or Mrs. John A. Legge.

Rev. C. A. Cole was "sore" yesterday and eight other men of the Central Christian church were "sore," also—but not at each other.

Saturday they had a pleasant time hammering nails, sawing boards, and fitting a small bungalow together in the Grand View district for one of the families of the church.

Lunch was served then at noon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Learned, 1543 Glenwood road by Mrs. Learned, Mrs. H. A. Marple and Mrs. F. R. Cole.

Salad Oil Saves Mrs. R. S. Garretson's Face From Scars

Mrs. R. S. Garretson of 343 West Harvard street owes tribute to salad oil.

Preparing dinner one afternoon last week, she had the bottle of salad dressing ready for use, when she lit the oven of the gas stove.

Evidently the gas had been on for some time, for the blast which burned her face was severe enough to have caused death, the doctor states.

With the presence of mind few would have displayed, Mrs. Garretson groped about for the dressing and bathed her face in it. This immediate application of oil has saved her features from terrible scars, and complications, the attending physician admits.

LIMITED HALTS AT GLENDALE DEPOT TIGHTLY CLOSED

Secretary of C. of C. Attempts to Conceal His Identity
From Other Passengers

James M. Rhoades, secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, accompanied C. E. Neale, president of the Merchants' association, to Fresno yesterday in the latter's motor car over the ridge route. Mr. Neale continues to San Francisco, where he will attend a state convention of retail hardware dealers.

Mr. Rhoades reports that the snow-capped mountains along the ridge present a wonderful sight to a person residing in Southern California, and the crisp air is like an elixir. He states that it took but eight hours' careful driving to motor to Fresno and twelve hours to return over the Southern Pacific.

They Arrive Safely, But—

When the train of Pullmans pulled into Glendale station this morning shortly after 7 o'clock, Mr. Rhoades and six others alighted to find the depot closed and no conveyances to meet the passengers.

"I tried to hide my identity as the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce," he said, "and add these people in getting one-half mile to the car line, telling them that the city was a mile and one-half away from the Southern Pacific's present depot site."

"What we need here is a centrally located railway station suitable for city of 30,000 people. We haven't the accommodations equal to a San Joaquin valley town of 300 population," the secretary added.

Pressure will be brought to bear immediately to rectify the bad impression the Southern Pacific unwittingly gives "the fastest growing city in America."

Margaret Crawford Is Hostess at Party Dance

Miss Margaret Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crawford of 800 South Central avenue, was hostess Saturday night at her parents' home at a delightfully-appointed Valentine's Day party and dance, which was attended by about fifteen local young people. The home was artistically and originally decorated for the novel occasion, the color scheme throughout being red and white. A clever distribution of hearts, valentines and kewpies gave the interior of the house a decidedly "valentine" appearance.

The first part of the evening was enjoyed in games and music, after which the guests were each given a valentine from a uniquely constructed valentine. Following the serving of refreshments the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Miss Crawford's invited guests included Misses Dorothy Kramer, Alice Holmes, Dorothy Rowley, Gertrude Hawkins, Dorothy Patterson, Lillian Schick and Dorothy Carmack; Messrs. Eustace Rowley, Roy Selover, Don Cowlin, Frank McGillis, Mark Bradley, Jack Hawley and W. McKay.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE AT CASA VERDUGO HONORS LINCOLN

Community Singing, Led by Mayor Robinson and Harry Girard One of Features

Featured by a splendid eulogy on the life of Lincoln, by the Rev. J. C. Livingstone, pastor, and patriotic community singing, the services last night at the Casa Verdugo Methodist church were the most impressive in the history of that congregation. Many officials of municipal and civic organizations were present and Mayor Spencer Robinson and Harry Girard led the ensemble numbers as well as singing "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" in duet.

The choir of twenty voices, one of the most notable musical organizations in the city under the leadership of Mrs. John W. Cotton was directed by Mr. Blaikie while Mrs. Winger sang the solo part of the opening anthem. Miss Gladys Sharpe is the organist. Other musical numbers included Mr. Girard playing while the choir and congregation sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean."

Tribute to Lincoln

"The incomparable man," was Rev. Livingstone's tribute to Lincoln in a comparison of the emancipator's life with that of Darwin. Lincoln stands out as the greatest man in the greatest cycle the world has ever known, according to the scholarly divine whose masterful address gave new light to the life of the man whose birthday anniversary is observed on February 12.

By clever delineation of others' greatness, Dr. Livingstone showed Lincoln to be far superior to others like Grant who surrounded him.

125 Medical Students Guests of Dr. Harrower

Harrower to about 125 medical students from the Los Angeles branch of the Loma Linda school.

Dr. Harrower sang and Mrs. Harrower presented a reading. At the conclusion of the program, those present sang "I Love You, California."

Refreshments including doughnuts and punch were served.

Rev. Preston Returns From Trip to Iowa

The Rev. Harley G. Preston, pastor of the Pacific Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, has returned to Glendale from Sac City, Ia., where he accompanied his mother's body to the last resting place. He reports that the thermometer registered 14 degrees below zero in Iowa while at New Orleans, which the pastor visited on his return trip, the temperature was 70 above with heavy rainfall.

Mr. Preston also visited Chicago and El Paso, Texas, but found none of these points to compare with Glendale when it comes to weather. He is more than glad to be back to his charge here.

DEPEND UPON HARDING TO PULL THEM FROM MUDDLE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Republican leaders of the house and senate were depending today upon President Harding to pull them out of the muddle in which they are floundering in trying to find a way to raise money for a soldiers' bonus. Further consideration of the proposed bonus tax program framed by the house ways and means committee was suspended pending an expected decision by the president as to whether short-term government bonds may be employed instead of direct taxation to finance the veterans' compensation.

OBENCHAIN TRIAL WILL RESUME WITH LEGAL BATTLE

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—When the trial of Madalynne Obenchain, charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, is resumed tomorrow—having been halted today by observance of Lincoln's birthday—a fight is expected to be precipitated by an attempt on the part of the state to introduce as evidence letters said to have been written to Madalynne by Kennedy. The defense will fight this move on the part of the state, attorneys said today. Mrs. Obenchain is bearing up well under the strain of the trial and was greatly rested by the three-day holiday.

SEARCHING HOLLYWOOD STUDIOS FOR CLEW TO SLAYER

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—In the belief that persons in the Hollywood motion picture colony who have not been hitherto questioned are in possession of information of importance in connection with the probe of the William D. Taylor murder mystery, District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine and other officials have started an investigation that is expected to reach every nook of the great studio center. The district attorney and two of his chief investigators were engaged in a secret mission that started last night. It was generally admitted that one phase of this investigation concerned a theory that a "dope ring" may have been involved in attendance at the district attorney's conference. An official court reporter was another member of the secret investigation expedition. Charles A. Jones, former chief of police, is actively engaged in aiding in the investigation. Jones stated that the officers last night and this morning had been working on a number of clues and intimated that new developments might be expected soon. The former chief would

In Regard to Delivery Orders

We wish to take this opportunity to heartily thank the people of Glendale for their generous support at the opening of our Glendale store.

While we were greatly pleased to receive such a volume of business, we regret exceedingly that we were not better prepared to give better service—especially in our delivery department.

We received so many delivery orders that we could make no promise when orders would be delivered—simply stating we would deliver as soon as possible.

Practically all of the 58 employees used the opening day were new help, and unfamiliar with Ralphs ways and prices.

As soon as these difficulties are overcome—we will endeavor to make nearly all parts of Glendale twice a day. Within a few blocks of the store we will try to make 3 or 4 deliveries per day.

Flour—Sugar—Potatoes—Coal Oil and Grain are sold 40 cents per 100 lbs. cheaper on carry-away orders than on delivery orders.

Thousands of other items in Meats, Groceries, Candies, Bakery Goods and Fruits and Vegetables are the same price, whether carried away or delivered, provided the order is $2.00 or over. On delivery orders less than $2.00 we make a nominal charge of 10 cents for delivery.

MINISTER DECLARES ABRAHAM LINCOLN WAS CHRISTIAN

Rev. C. M. Calderwood, in His Sunday Sermon, Tells Why
Men Cherish Memory

Tribute to the Great Emancipator was paid yesterday morning by Rev.
C. M. Calderwood in a special sermon at the Congregational church in honor of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln.

"The name of Abraham Lincoln in his relation to human liberty and human institutions will be cherished by the memory of mankind as long as the seasons come and go and rivers run into the sea," declared Rev. Calderwood.

"Long after you and I have been gathered to our fathers old men will be telling his story to little children and they will hear it gladly. The histories of his life, the monuments erected in his honor, the portraits, the institutions founded in his name bear evidence of the depth of affection in which he is held by the American people.

"The country that has no wars, no pains, no sorrows, no revolutions, is a country that has no heroes. The great names of history are those that have been associated with great principles, convictions, revolutions and civilizations. Hebrew civilization means Moses. Greek means Homer.
Roman means Caesar. American means Washington, Webster, Grant and a great host of men and women working in art, science, literature, government; but standing far above them all, as a mighty prophet of God, is the great advocate of human freedom, Abraham Lincoln.

He Was Real American

"This morning we celebrate the 113th anniversary of the birth of our martyred president.

"Take him, all in all, Abraham Lincoln is greater than any institution, any science, any art, or any other personality that America has produced. History tells of no human being who has passed from a cradle so humble to a grave so illustrious.

"One of the most striking characteristics of Abraham Lincoln was his Americanism. Washington was a patrian, the product of aristocratic institutions. His connections were English, so that England claimed him. But Americanism is the essence of Lincoln's thought, enthusiasm, speeches and character. Washington climbed the ladder that leads to success, but Lincoln built his own ladder. His log cabin shames our palaces; his six months in school, our seven years in the university; his in-delict to convictions, our intriguing politicians. The man stands forth as the embodiment of Americanism;
as the sweetest, the gentlest, strongest, and most illustrious character in our history.

In Time of Great Men

"Lincoln lived in an era of great men. Among such men as Webster, Seward, Chase, Phillips, Beecher, Emerson, Garrison, Lowell and Whittier Lincoln lived, wrote, spoke and did his work, but he stands forth as the master of the men of his time.

"Never was a candidate for universal fame born under so unfriendly a sky. His annals are the short and simple annals of the poor. His home, lack of educational advantages and environment were not those that we usually consider make great men. His native piety, keenness of mind, ambition and integrity won for him his place in history.

"The question has been asked, was Lincoln a Christian? What do you think constitutes true Christianity? No statesman in American history knew his Bible better than Lincoln. He not only knew it but he used it effectively. He constantly appealed to its authority. His character was molded by its precepts. His ideals were those that came from the spirit of Christ.

"He believed in prayer and practiced it. To Bishop Simpson in the dark days of the awful war he said,
'I feel the need of prayer and, as never before, pray for me.' After the battle of Gettysburg he told General Sickles that he was never in doubt during the battle for he had prayed to God for victory. After prayer, a sweet comfort came into his soul that all things would go right at Gettysburg. And these prayers were not exceptions in Lincoln's life."

"He went to church regularly and was always to be found at the prayer meeting in Washington. He professed his faith in Jesus Christ. He said, 'When I stood on the battlefield of Gettysburg I gave my heart to Jesus Christ and now I can say that I love my Saviour.' These words came from a man who was celebrated for his honesty."

LESSONS FROM LIFE AGED PAPERS TELL OF LINCOLN ARE OF ATTACK UPON LINCOLN'S LIFE

Patriotic Sermon Is Delivered at First Methodist Church by Rev. C. M. Crist

1865 Publications on Display in Local Bank Window Describe Assassination

A patriotic sermon was preached yesterday at the First Methodist church by Rev. C. M. Crist in commemoration of Lincoln's birthday. Rev. Crist drew lessons from the life of "the great commoner." His topic was patriotism with a fuller meaning. He took as his scripture texts, "This is my commandment that ye love one another as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this: that a man lay down his life for his friends," and "Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of love."

"Patriotism," declared Rev. Crist, "is progressive—not only true to past ideals but adjusting itself to new. It is not measured by fealty to party, by fireworks or red fire, but finds its highest expression in service to mankind. The delegates who came from abroad to the Disarmament Conference were worthy examples of true patriotism. I believe in national life and in giving it our unstinted support. The stars and stripes stand for Americanism and a fair deal for all men. I also believe in exerting our influence for the good of all nations. We have it on good authority that, even though we have been unrepresented in the League of Nations, our influence nevertheless has been felt there in a helpful manner."

Two Outstanding Figures
"True patriotism stands for preparedness—not implements of warfare but a great interest in mankind and a sacrificial love that works in the time of peace against love. Someone has said to learn of the history of the world's progress read the biographies of great men. We have in our country two great outstanding figures both born in this month of February—one the father and the other the savior of his country. Although coming from different and extreme walks of life, they both revealed similar traits of character. I will mention four in particular and recommend them all, young, middle aged and old but especially to the former."

"First, a high ambition and lofty aspiration. Fame comes not by chance. It is largely the result of persistently striving for a high ideal. Both Washington and Lincoln exhibited this in high ideals for their country."

Race Prejudice Obstacle
"Second, a generous love for their fellows. No selfish man can be a true patriot. God made all men and made them equal. One of the greatest obstacles to our progress today is race prejudice."

"Third, an incorruptible integrity. Both Washington and Lincoln were examples of strict honesty."

"Fourth, religious devotion. Both Washington and Lincoln were Christian men and, under its influence, became the highest type of patriots. It is well to recognize the virtue of these great men. But we must do more. Great evils confront us—greed and vice and rebellion against the Eighteenth Amendment. We must support the constitution, combat these evils and not shelve them off on to the rising generation."

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Barnes and son Burton of Long Beach were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Kitterman of 311 North Kenwood street.

Mrs. Almira Ferris of Chicago was the weekend guest of Dr. Hannah Luella Hukill of the Kalibrand apartments.

Mrs. W. W. Hamilton of 327 West Garfield avenue was the guest at an afternoon tea given Friday by Mrs. George Sunday of Windsor Square, Los Angeles.

W. F. Richardson of 611 East Broadway has just returned from Porterville with a carload of grapefruit. He has ordered two more carloads, also, for early shipment.

Glenwood Springs, Colorado, was the principal topic of discussion yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Richardson and their daughter, Miss Marian Richardson, of 611 East Broadway, Mrs. Al G. Barnes; Mrs. Fred Barlow, 1224 South San Fernando road; and Mrs. Fred Schram who spent yesterday at Venice with friends from their former home.

Mrs. A. P. Knight of 1305 East California street entertained very delightfully Friday afternoon a group of old friends. Needlework, music and social intercourse were enjoyed, at the close of which delicious refreshments were served. The guests included Mrs. E. A. Case, Mrs. Bromfield, Mrs. Winters, Miss Collins, Mrs. C. E. Russell, Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Ingledue, Mrs. Mallett, Mrs. French and small son.

There never was a financier like Noah. He floated his stock when the whole world was in liquidation.

The memory of Abraham Lincoln was honored last week by the exhibition in the window of the First Savings Bank at 104 East Broadway of a sepia engraving of the "martyred president," accompanied by two newspapers issued in 1865 announcing his assassination and funeral.

"What great Americans have said on death" in white letters upon a blue background occupied one-half of an ornamental display card in the middle of the window. The other half of the card is occupied by the quotation: "Teach Economy. That is one of the first virtues. It begins with saving money. Abraham Lincoln."

One of the newspapers, now yellow with age, is a copy of the New York Special for Saturday, April 15, 1865. It has six columns about fifteen inches deep, divided by black column rules about a quarter of an inch wide. The type is about seven point, or slightly smaller than that used in this newspaper. Across the top of the page above and below the heading are black rules which assist in giving the page an appearance of mourning.

How News Is "Played"
An account of Lincoln's assassination occupies most of the newspaper. The first item on this subject in point of chronology occupied a small inconspicuous space in the center of the page. "First Dispatch" is its heading. Its date line, set to the right of the column instead of the left, as at present, is "Washington, 12:30 a. m." The "story" itself is brief: "The president was shot in a theatre tonight and is perhaps mortally wounded."

The second dispatch, another item of similar size, occupies a small space just below. This is dated "Washington, 1 a. m.," and says: "The president is not expected to live through the night. He was shot in a theatre. Secretary Seward also was assassinated. No arteries were cut."

"Special Dispatch" in large type is the heading of a paragraph at the bottom of one of the columns. It is dated "Washington, April 14," and remarks: "Assassination has been inaugurated in Washington. The bowie knife and pistol have been applied to President Lincoln and Secretary Seward. The former was shot in the throat while at Ford's theatre tonight. Mr. Seward was badly cut about the neck while in his bed at his residence."

Many Sizes and Styles
"Extra, 8:10," declares a large one column heading in the middle of the page. "Death of President" is the headline occupying three lines below. "Death" in large black type. Then follow three or four lines of the actual death of Lincoln. The principal story on the assassination starts in the upper left column with a heading using many sizes and styles of type and alternating between heavy and light face. These headings are as follows: "Important—Assassination of the President—The President Shot at the Theatre Last Evening—Secretary Seward Is Dismayed in His Bed, but Not Seriously Wounded—Clarence and Frederick Seward Badly Hurt—Escape of Assassins—Intense Excitement—Scene at the Deathbed of Mr. Lincoln—J. Wilkes Booth, the actor, the alleged assassin of the President."

Story in Communication
Under this heading, the marked, "etc., etc., etc." The date line is "Washington, April 15, 11:30." Under this is marked "The Official Dispatch." The story is in the form of a communication addressed to "Major General Dix, New York."

"This evening about 9:30 p. m., at Ford's theatre," says the first paragraph, "the President, while seated in his private box with Mrs. Lincoln, Mrs. Harris and Major Rathbun was shot by an assassin who suddenly entered the box and approached behind the president."

The other newspaper on display is a copy of the Indianapolis Journal in Memoriam of Lincoln's funeral. It consists of a wood engraving of Lincoln and devoted the entire page to an account of the ceremonies.

Keith L. Brooks Is Ill, Not Seriously

Keith L. Brooks, editor of the "King's Business" of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles is confined to his home in Eagle Rock by sickness, but his physician hopes to have him out in a few days again.

The rapid growth and keen interest in the Men's Bible class, of the Presbyterian church, which meets at the city hall every Sunday morning because of the crowded condition in the church, is largely due to the capable leadership of Mr. Brooks.

Sunday morning, in the absence of Mr. Brooks, W. A. Horn, the president of the class, gave the men a strong, outstanding message on "God's Concern for Men and Our Responsibility."

F. G. Taylor, chairman of the membership committee, says that he will not be satisfied until this will be the "Fastest Growing Bible Class in the United States" in "The Fastest Growing City of the United States."

STYLE LEADS TO GRAVE

MARTIN'S FERRY, Ohio—"Thousands die for fashion," declared Dr. C. B. Winger, sermonizing on dress reform. "Bare breasts, silk hose, low shoes, with a chic fur coat send thousands into the grave. In the high school dress leads to snobbery and caste, and many a poor man's daughter, with birth, brains and character even in excess of others, cannot go because of expenses."

PROPOSES HUMANE PRISON

DETROIT—Overcrowding of Michigan prisons makes it impossible to extend to their inmates many privileges they otherwise would have, but many flagrant abuses have been corrected, and plans to give Michigan the most enlightened, humane and scientific prison system in the United States already are being put into effect, Governor Alex. J. Groesbeck has announced.

The first Dutch church in America was built in 1666 in Breuckelen, now Brooklyn.

About 72 per cent of the population of India is dependent in one way or another upon agriculture.

Interesting Program Is Given by Pupils

The various phases of expression work developed at the Dramatic Art studio, 101 North Cedar street, were well illustrated by an interesting program given by the pupils of the school Saturday night. The program, which included monologues, readings, pantomimes, dancing and dramatic sketches, was as follows: Reading, "Columbus," by Mr. Viederman; monologue, "Aunt Jemimah" and "Chris," by Miss Helen M. Steele; story telling, "Why the Baby Says Goo," by Mrs. Chambers; three pantomimes of original stories acted out by members of the boys' class, Ralph Comargo, William, Jim and Robert Rhodes; reading, "I Ain't Going to Cry Any More," by Evelyn Peebles; reading, "Pillar Fight," by William Rhodes; reading, "I Got a Pain in My Sawdust," by Evelyn Kennedy; scarf dance, by Edith Addison; dialogue, "Little Dominique," by Jim Rhodes and Ralph Comargo; Valentine pantomime by Erline Kennedy and Evelyn Peebles; reading, "Bell's Beau," by Robert Rhodes. The last number was a parliamentary drill given by the boys' class, the members of which are from 8 to 10 years of age. The meeting was called to order, chairman duly elected, various motions proposed and passed in regular form, and meeting adjourned.

Mrs. E. M. S. Labadie, studio director and instructor for adults and boys, made interesting comments on the work and progress of the school, showing that expression work is not merely for accomplishment but for the purpose of developing and perfecting the individuality of the pupil.

Miss Dorothy Wright, dancing instructor, was hostess for the evening and was assisted by Miss Allene Simmons, assistant expression teacher. After the program a social hour was enjoyed, during which refreshments were served.

ST. LOUIS USES MOST PAINT

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—St. Louis women have the old-time Indians completely backed off the boards, according to Edward F. Helbig, manager of this city's largest wholesale drug concern.

St. Louis women, Helbig declares, spend $3,000,000 annually for face paint and rouge. The sale here of paint and rouge will average $250,000 per month, Helbig asserts.

ARRESTS BREAK UP GANG

NEW YORK—Federal authorities here believe they have broken up a huge counterfeiting ring with arrest of Aaron Silver, who is charged with engraving and printing $48,000 in $20 Federal Reserve notes. He is held for the Grand Jury. Department of Justice agents said Silver had connections in Russia and that the band was of international scope.

MANY INJURED IN MONTH

CHARLESTON, W. Va.—Injuries in industries of West Virginia during the last month numbered 1,524, of which twenty were fatal.

Bank notes are said to have been used in China nearly 5,000 years ago.

discuss last night's activities only sufficiently to reveal that one phase of the investigation was along the "dope ring" theory and that several important witnesses had been located. The official denied that the night's work had dealt with any of the prominent motion picture stars who have been mentioned in connection with the case.

PROPOSES SAVING OF $70,000,000 IN 1922-23 NAVY BUDGET
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Reductions in the personnel and equipment of the navy to effect a saving of $70,000,000 in the budget for 1922-23 were recommended to the house naval affairs committee today by Secretary of the Navy Denby. Denby urged an appropriation be made to maintain an enlisted personnel of 90,000 men and 6,000 apprentices, a decrease of about 10,000 under present strength.

BRITISH TROOPS BEING SENT TO ULSTER PROVINCE
LONDON, Feb. 13.—British troop reinforcements are being moved into Ulster province, Colonial Secretary Winston Churchill announced in the house of commons this afternoon. The evacuation of British troops from Ireland has been suspended. The British government has cancelled orders for military evacuation of Cork, Dublin and Bantry. Seven persons were killed and fourteen wounded in fighting at Belfast during the last twenty-four hours.

WELL AT SANTA FE SPRINGS, JUST IN, CATCHES FIRE
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—Shooting a pillar of flame 500 feet into the air and illuminating the country within a radius of fifteen miles, Bell well No. 2 at Santa Fe Springs, which came in as a gasser at noon Saturday, caught fire early today. Guards were posted to keep sightseers from venturing too close to the flame and efforts were made to prevent the fire from spreading to Bell well No. 1, producing oil at the rate of 4400 barrels a day. Representatives of the drilling company said the well might expend itself in a week.

TWO PERSONS KILLED IN BELFAST DISTURBANCES
LONDON, Feb. 13.—Two persons were shot to death and several others were wounded in fresh disorders in Belfast during the morning, according to a Central News dispatch from that city at 2 o'clock this afternoon. This stated the dead in Belfast and environs in the last twenty-four hours as four men and one woman. "Disturbances are reported throughout the whole countryside (Ulster province)," telegraphed the Central News correspondent. "An American newspaperman who left Belfast for the free state on Friday has not been heard from since. A number of saw mills in the Ballina district were burned." Orders for British troops withdrawals from Ireland have been cancelled, said a dispatch from that city.

L. A. MAYOR MAKES PUBLIC MESSAGE TO CITY COUNCIL
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—With recommendations for a bond issue to erect a city hall and proposal for a new charter as a means of modernizing the city's government, Mayor George E. Cryer today made public his annual message to the city council. The document probably will be delivered tomorrow morning, it was said. Accompanying the mayor's recommendations for future governmental needs of the city are detailed reports of the various municipal departments, each one of them showing marked growth and development of their duties as affected by the city's expansion during the last year. The discrepancies of the charter as it now stands are so numerous, according to the mayor's message, that the simplest remedy will be to adopt an entirely new one.

POPE FORMALLY ASSUMES CATHOLIC CHURCH DUTIES
ROME, Feb. 13.—Pope Pius XI, whose pontificate dates officially from the time of his coronation, today assumed formally, the duties of supreme pontiff of the Roman Catholic church. The spontaneous tributes of affection and reverence which accompanied the brilliant coronation ceremonies Sunday made it evident that no pope in the past century has begun his high duties under more auspicious circumstances than the present occupant of the chair of St. Peter. Pope Pius XI was deeply touched by the evidences of devotion which marked the whole of Sunday. He spoke with deep feeling of the manifestations of "his children" in the great square of St. Peter's, flanking the vatican. Sixty thousand persons witnessed the coronation rites while nearly 200,000 waited outside for the pontifical blessing.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Decent Folk Need Defense
Appian Way To Be Made
Location For Pawnbroker
Orange Show Opens Friday

By Gil A. Cowan

TWO striking comments in connection with the Taylor murder mystery.
Carl Laemmle says that rotten branches of the movie business are to be tossed into the discard. He will not have to go far from Universal City to get an armful of them.
The second comment is the fact that William A. Brady arose in Dr. Straton's church in New York yesterday and defended the acting profession. "I come to defend the decent men and women of the stage and screen."
Truly, they do need defense—the decent ones, for nothing short of murder is perpetrated against them. And that isn't right.

Fire destroyed a school in Pasadena. Now there are prospects of a bigger one being built in its place.
While not advocating fire as a method for the upbuilding of school system or a city, it is too bad that no agency can take care of the shacks along San Fernando road and obliterate them.
The Standard Oil company, The Glendale Lumber company, the Independent Lumber company and others have recently erected creditable buildings for their purposes, but there is a dingy old winery, a Chinese laundry and a score of tumble down sheds once used as stores that should be dismantled and used for firewood.

After that the city and county and state should unite on a paving program for that thoroughfare from the heart of Los Angeles to the state highway the other side of Saugus.
San Fernando boulevard has been and always will be the greatest artery for traffic north from Los Angeles. It must be built to bear the burden and no single city can expect to pay the cost.
And the time is ripe—before this boulevard is built up—to make it the Appian way of southern California.

Two or three more toggery shops, a couple more candy kitchens, a department store or two, several other new business establishments.
That's the way Glendale is growing overnight. 'Tis even whispered that two more banks (possibly sand banks) are to open here in the near future.
Rather peculiar, however, that no pawnbroker has found this to be an ideal location.

The Twelfth National Orange Show will open Friday at San Bernardino. Many bands, college glee clubs and vaudeville attractions will furnish entertainment, while the special days will bring special entertainment features from many of the southern California communities. Strolling musicians will furnish entertainment all over the fourteen acres of show grounds. Entertainment programs will be given daily both afternoon and evening.

Money Is Convincing Talker, Says Pastor in Sunday Sermon

"The grandest sight on earth is a rich man consecrating his all to Christ," declared Rev. C. A. Cole yesterday morning at the Central Christian church.

"Money talks; it is a good convincing talker; no promoter can equal it. Money says: 'Palaces on the avenues, bungalows in the hills and all the things that the heart could wish. Fine horses, servants, autos. Come, play with me and I will give you joy and good times.'"

"Heaven says: 'Plain living, simple habits, hard work, heavy loads, blessing men. Come with me and I will give you joy and blessing.'"
"And Mr. Richman finds it so hard to look into the face of such as these that he doesn't follow. Imagine the sensation. If the richest man in Los Angeles county should come down this aisle and say, 'I came to be saved' and roll up his sleeves, hitch up his fortune and go to work for the Master."

"God is the master workman and the plain tools like you and me have only to let him take us and he will build engines and palaces. It isn't the tools but the workman. I've seen men, who with a hammer and cold-chisel, a file and ratchet outfit, make a whole machine shop. A master carpenter needs only a saw and plane and hatchet. Anything that destroys the child spirit of trust and humility keeps God from getting hold of us."

"If God has not plainly called us to administer earthly riches for Him, we'd better be afraid of them. That's Christ's advice."

Remarkable Violin Is Applauded at Concert

Applause, which followed Vern Ison's violin selections last night at the Glendale theatre as part of the thirteenth organ recital and concert, indicated that the audience did not seem to object to the fact that his instrument violated all the principles of violin construction. It was made by George M. Anderson of 106 Franklin court, an expert in the making of hand-made violins, who has many curious instruments in his possession. Instead of being made from thin layers of wood carefully fitted together and shellacked, this one was made of wood half an inch thick.—Adv.

TOMORROW—TUESDAY

MABEL NORMAND in "Molly-O"

STRONG PICTURE OF LOVE, ADVENTURE, AT T. D. & L.

'The Song of Life' Is Shown for Today Only; All Star
Cast Is Presented

"The Song of Life," a special John M. Stahl production with an all-star cast, will be the first National attraction at the T. D. & L. theatre for today only.

The production is heralded as the most dramatic and human contribution which Director Stahl has yet given the screen. It is a stirring story of romance and adventure with a powerful mother-love theme in the background.

The principal players are Gaston Glass, Georgia Woodruff, Grace Darmond and 4-year-old Richard Headrick, who has endeared himself to the hearts of picturegoers the world over for this wonderful work on the screen.

Tomorrow the T. D. & L. theatre will present the inimitable screen production "Molly-O" with Mabel Normand—the hit of the film world—the biggest picture of all time.

'Molly-O' Is Feature for T. D. & L. Patrons Tomorrow

Tomorrow is the day. Tomorrow "Molly-O" will be flashed on the T. D. & L. theatre screen—"Molly-O" the greatest of all pictures—the raved-breaking comedy-drama success with Mabel Normand, produced by Mack Sennett.

Speaking of "Molly-O," Ralph Allan says:

"There can be no question about 'Molly-O' being the greatest feature film ever presented in Glendale. It has proved the biggest motion picture success of recent years everywhere. The story—Mabel Normand, Mack Sennett, Richard Jones, the director, are a combination of four that can not be beaten. Its theme depicts pathos, love, humor, romance, in a thrilling sketch of life. I guarantee in the presentation of 'Molly-O' the patrons of the T. D. & L. theatre the finest show they ever saw and take the opportunity to state as here. I fully expect 'Molly-O' to break all house records for attendance at this theatre and as a consequence suggest patrons plan to come early. 'Molly-O' is a great, big, powerful story—tender, sincere, lovable—to be enjoyed by all—so bring the 'kiddies' and let 'Molly-O' make you laugh, cry and laugh again."

A special 3:30 matinee each day for school children will be given and Mr. Allan fully expects the younger folk to take advantage of this.

'Unpardonable Sin' Subject of Sermon By Dr. H. C. Funk

"The Unpardonable Sin" was the subject of the sermon delivered yesterday morning by Dr. H. C. Funk at the First Lutheran church.

"It is voluntary blasphemy," declared Rev. Funk, "a deliberate rejection of the One whom the Holy Ghost reveals to us. The sin against the Holy Ghost does not rest with God, it is all with you. It is deciding forever against God and rejecting the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world."

"If you have the least desire to be a Christian, you are on saving ground. Have you ever defrauded another? Then remember that Zacharias confessed and made restitution and the Savior said: 'This day is salvation come to this house.' A man confessed that he was a murderer and asked: 'Is there forgiveness for me?' Then I remembered how they murdered the Son of God and, while they railed upon Him, He prayed: 'Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.' Yes, Christ is most merciful, forgiving all manner of sins."

"Can Christ save a drunkard? Yes, and He is the only one who can. A man in the throes of delirium tremens staggered out into the street. He was picked up by an old man and carried into Tremorne Mission. The next thing he knew he was listening to a prayer. The man rose up forgiven, a free man. S. H. Hadley became the successor to Jerry McAuley. He was one of the greatest rescue missionaries the world has ever had."

Flickers and Fadeouts

Girard Greets Herbert
Considerable local interest attaches itself to the visit of Victor Herbert to southern California. Harry Girard, well-known singer, as well as stage and screen star, who resides in Glendale, was among those last week-end who were on hand to greet the musician-composer when he arrived in Los Angeles.

Sketch Proves Treat
Glendale is gaining the reputation of being the "try out town." Fredrik Vogading, the noted Dutch actor, appeared at the Glendale Theatre last night before his Pacific coast premiere in Los Angeles. "Blindfold," the Rupert Hughes sketch, was a real treat.

Taking Act to East
In the same week William Brunton presented "The Cheerful Liar" on the T. D. & L. stage for approval of a representative audience such as Glendale affords. He is taking the act east and it should go over good.

They're Just Americans
In the opinion of picture producers Glendale offers one of the few places in the west where they do not find too much of any one class. A success here is a success anywhere, it has been tritely said, for Glendale audiences are typically American.

Opera Stars to Appear
Henri la Bonte and Madame la Bonte will head the list of operatic stars to appear next Sunday afternoon at the Glendale Theatre in the second of a series of twilight recitals for the benefit of the Holy Family church organ fund.

REX BEACH'S STORY 'THE IRON TRAIL' IS PICTURIZED

Film Full of Suspense and Action Now Shown on the Screen at Glendale

"The Iron Trail" adapted from the Rex Beach story of the same name now at the Glendale theatre, is a really big picture—big in suspense, action, thrills and good clean stirring interest. You cannot afford missing the opportunity of seeing this show today or tomorrow.

As a picture play, "The Iron Trail" surpasses the novel. It has preserved all of the vital interest of the book and has elaborated the theme by making the characters real and embellishing the story with a wealth of settings that makes a story seem true.

An admirable cast that includes Wyndham Standing, Thurston Hall, Alma Tell, Reginald Denny, Harlan Knight and Lee Beggs is supported by excellent actors in the minor roles and Rex Beach who was present during the making of every scene in the production has really given to the screen a bigger and better version of his already remarkable Alaskan railroad story.

Well Made Picture
The picture was made under the direction of R. William Neill who has a reputation of never having produced a picture that did not play on Broadway in New York City, and "The Iron Trail" is unquestionably one of the best he ever made.

The story tells of the building of a railroad through the virgin Alaskan wilderness and is replete with adventure and romance. It is an inspiration for sturdy manhood and real affection. It is one-hundred per cent entertainment that leaves a clean well satisfied impression after it has been seen.

News, chats, topics and a comedy complete the big bill.

HOLY AMBITION BIG NEED, DECLARES REV. EDMONDS

Second of Series of Sermons
by Presbyterian Pastor
Given Sunday Morning

Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning preached the second of a series of sermons upon the epistle to the Philippians. A resume follows:

"Paul, the old warrior of the cross, was coming close to his end, in a cold prison in Rome, chained to guards. And sitting thus, he writes to his dear flock back in Philippi: 'Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.' (4:8). 'Finally' looks as if he was coming to a conclusion, and he was. He does not in this case tell them to do, but to think. Let our concern be for right thoughts. 'Of good report' is in the original 'high-toned,' that is, of lofty ideal in character."

"Paul puts in three great fundamental things: 'True,' that is relation to God; 'honest,' relation to man; 'pure,' relation to one's self. Look now at these three."

Stealing the Fruits

"Everywhere decent humanity is stealing the fruits and tying them on as the products of civilization, without having the life within from which the fruits should grow. But we are the children of a high God, having a high and rich inheritance. It will become a prince to be in a back alley with a muck-rake looking for a penny to buy a piece of pie. Children of the King, have some dignity!"

"One of the marks of the high-toned Christian is modesty. When beauty, talent, genius begin to show off, they sink below contempt. When spiritual gifts are used for one's glory they become objects of derision. If you are able to do anything, serve with it in the name of Christ. Moses wist not that his face shone; the seraphim covered their faces with their wings—holy modesty."

"Personal habits enter into the make-up of a high-toned Christian. We ought to keep our persons fine, as temples of the Holy Spirit. It is not a question as to what habits you can indulge in; whatever habit glorifies God, go on with it. And cleanliness of speech will mark a real high-toned Christian. Let your speech be always seasoned with salt. This cheap, filthy slang which comes from the movie world—why should we use such when we may be using the language of heaven? The tongue may be a blessing, or a curse set on fire of hell. Oh, how forcible is the good, clean word."

Show Consideration

"Another indelible mark of the high-toned Christian is kindly consideration. How gentle Jesus was with the woman of Samaria,—no wounding her, and the whole city was brought out as a consequence. And so He was with the thief on the cross. The high-toned Christian must be also devout. Not a recluse, hidden away; we must mix with the world, to do anything. But we must get our spirits in seclusion in prayer; we need to get back to the devout spirit. And we need this as to the worship in the house of God; we lack devoutness in the church."

"Above all else one will have a holy ambition who is a high-toned Christian. What is your ambition?"
